بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

The saying of Allaah the Elevated:

[Indeed the likeness of 'Eesaa (Jesus) before Allaah is as the likeness of Aadam. He created him from dust, then (He) said to him: "Be!" – and he was. The truth from your Lord, so be not of those who doubt.]<sup>1</sup>

'Eesaa son of Maryam [Jesus son of Mary], may the Salaat and Salaam be upon him, is a servant and messenger of Allaah in the Islaamic legislation, the Word of Allaah that He bestowed upon Maryam and a Rooh - spirit from Him.

He is a servant [of Allaah] who must not be worshiped, a Messenger [of Allaah] who must not be belied. The Jews and Christians have either gone to extremes or deficiencies concerning him.

The Jews were cold and deficient towards him, as they described him as being a bastard child. The Christians on the other hand went to extremes concerning him, by worshiping him alongside Allaah.

Allaah created him, with His ability, from Maryam without a father, just as He created Aadam from earth, He created Hawaa [Eve] from Aadam and then created the rest of mankind from both male and female.

These are the four categories of creation that mankind is restricted to. Allaah mentioned the creation of Aadam and Hawaa and the rest of mankind - except 'Eesaa - in the beginning of Surat an Nisaa saying:

[O mankind! Be dutiful to your Lord, Who created you from a single person (Aadam), and from him (Aadam) He created his wife [Hawaa (Eve)], and from them both He created many men and women...]<sup>2</sup>

The likeness of Jesus is as of Aadam

Allaah then completed [the categories of creation] by creating 'Eesaa without a male, but this is a lesser category than Aadam's creation which was with neither a male nor female. For this reason Allaah said:

[Indeed the likeness of 'Eesaa (Jesus) before Allaah is as the likeness of Aadam. He created him from dust, then (He) said to him: "Be!" – and he was.]<sup>3</sup>

The creation of 'Eesaa was with the word 'Kun - [Be]' just as the creation of Aadam was with 'Be'. This is what came in the Islaamic legislation and it is the truth without doubt, this is why Allaah then said:

[The truth from your Lord, so be not of those who doubt.]<sup>4</sup>

He also said in Surat Maryam:

[Such is 'Eesaa (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary). (It is) a statement of truth about which they doubt (or dispute).]<sup>5</sup>

Commenting on this Ayah, ibn Katheer stated:

"Allaah the Elevated says: [Indeed the likeness of 'Eesaa (Jesus) before Allaah] In relation to Allaah's ability as he created him without a father [is as the likeness of Aadam.] For Allaah the Glorified created him without a father or mother [He created him from dust, then (He) said to him: "Be!" – and he was. The truth is from your Lord]. Therefore the One who created Aadam without a father is able to create 'Eesaa in a simpler fashion. So if it can be claimed that 'Eesaa is the son of Allaah because he was created without a father, then it can also be claimed that Aadam is the son of Allaah for the same reason and more, and it is known with consensus that this is falsehood, so claiming that 'Eesaa is the son of Allaah for this reason is therefore a greater and more apparent falsehood. But the Lord, the Mighty and Majestic, wished to show His ability to His creation when he created Aadam without a male or female, Hawaa with a male without a female, 'Eesaa with a female but without a male and the rest of mankind from both male and female."

Another example of these four categories in the creation of mankind is in the creation of the children of Aadam, as Allaah blesses some of them with sons, some with daughters, some with both sons and daughters and some without either, as Allaah said:

The likeness of Jesus is as of Aadam

[To Allaah belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. He creates what He wills. He bestows female (offspring) upon whom He wills, and bestows male (offspring) upon whom He wills. Or He bestows both males and females, and He renders barren whom He wills. Verily, He is All-Knower and is Able to do all things.]<sup>6</sup>

Likewise are the four categories in contentment and misery, amongst mankind are those who are born as believers and die as such, others are born as disbelievers and die as such, some are born as disbelievers and die as believers and others are born as believers and die as disbelievers. The evidence for the latter two categories is the Hadeeth of ibn Mas'ood where it states:

“By the One, other than Whom there is no other deity, indeed one of you performs the actions of the people of Paradise until there is but an arm’s length between him and it, and what has been written overtakes him, and so he acts with the actions of the people of the Hellfire and thus enters it; and indeed one of you performs the actions of the people of the Hellfire, until there is but an arm’s length between him and it, and what has been written overtakes him and so he acts with the actions of the people of Paradise and thus he enters it.”<sup>7</sup>
