In the name of Allaah, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy

Question: The questioner asks concerning the language of the jinn, O Eminent Shaykh?

Shaykh ibn Baaz (May Allaah the Most High have mercy on him): That which is apparent is that they are like humans, in that they have various languages. Amongst them there is the English (jinn), amongst them there is the French, amongst them there is the American and amongst them there is the non-Arab and the Arab; (there are various) races amongst them. Because Allaah has said concerning them: [“There are among us some that are righteous and some that are contrary; we are groups having different ways.”]<sup>1</sup> And they are upon different sects. He, Glorified be He, has said: [“And some of us are Muslims and some of us are Qaasitoun (disbelievers).”]<sup>2</sup> So they are of different groups and sects. Amongst them there is the pure and amongst them there is the impure. Amongst them there is the Jahmee (follower of the teachings of the Jahmiyyah), amongst them there is the Sunnee (follower of the Sunnah), amongst them there is the Raafidhee (from the extreme Shee’ah), amongst them there is the Christian, amongst them there is the Jew and amongst them there is other than that. (They are of) various groups and sects: [“There are among us some that are righteous and some that are contrary; we are groups having different ways.”]<sup>3</sup> His statement: [“...some that are contrary...”], is general including (all) other groups.
